

February 8, 1979

SELECTMEN'S MEETING

Present were Oliver Andrews, Thomas Mansfield, kRoland Sallada and Betty Hooper.

Katherine Johnston was asked to come in to discuss accepting the position of dog officer. She wanted to know more about the rules involved. The town must supply her with dog runs and dog cover. The Selectmen will pursue this problem. She agreed to accept the position when all details are taken care of.

Daniel Way came in to complain about the icy condition of his road. He asked that the road be sanded when icy conditions exist. He said the road (Sam Saul Leach Road) has only been sanded twice this winter. Mr. Mansfield advised that this road was discussed at the Road Committee meeting. It was agreed that the road definitely needs work. The Selectmen will speak to the Road Agent regarding the sanding of this road.