

Present were Selectmen Dodge, Olson, Mansfield and secretary.

On February 16, 1988 Ruth Saltmarsh was presented the Boston Post Cane by Selectmen Dodge and Mansfield.

7:06 Debbi Gilligan owner of Abigail's Bakery came in to see if she could incorporate the building in back of the bakery with the bakery. The two (2) buildings would be connected. The added space would be used only for commercial baking. There would not be any additional help hired.

Interviews for building inspector position William Sprague, Brian Troxler, William Hebert and Kerwin Sizemore.

7:30 William Sprague Columbia Road Manchester, N.H. age 69. Mr. Sprague has built homes in the surrounding towns. He has experience and knowledge of the building profession and would like to pass this on to the community. Mr. Sprague is retired, however, he would like to work part-time. He plans on working several years.

7:55 Brian Troxler Concord, N.H. age 32. Mr. Troxler is a fireman in Concord, N.H. and owns a construction business. He oversees the framing and roofing of homes and then subcontracts the finish product. He has an overall knowledge of building and feels codes should be enforce with some flexiability keeping life saftey in mind.

8:25 William Hebert River Road New Boston age 23. Mr. Hebert has experience in building and a basic knowledge of electrical and plumbing. He is interested in seeing good quality building done in New Boston.

8:45 Kerwin Sizemore 301 Mont Vernon Road New Boston age 41. Mr. Sizemore has been working in the building field for the past two (2) year on a full-time basis. He has a general knowledge of building, electrical and plumbing.

Interviews were completed at 9:10 PM

9:15 Selectmen signed checks and reviewed correspondence with secretary.

Secretary was dismissed at 10:30 pm before discussion on applicants.

Selectmen decided on Kerwin Sizemore for the building inspector.

Meeting adjourned 12 am

Respectfully submitted

Linda L. Sizemore

600