

New Boston Conservation Commission

Position statement with regards to impervious surfaces:

The New Boston Conservation Commission, as an advisory board working with local, county and state municipalities, endeavors to review, independently, each development application with priority towards habitat, wetlands and wildlife corridor protection.