

IMPORTANT INFO FOR WEEK 4, July 24—28!

Week 4 is Food & Farms week! On Monday we will welcome local baker, Shepard Bassett to teach cake decorating skills and then the campers can practice decorating their own cupcake to take home.

Tuesday will be our field trip to the Squam Lake Science Center. This outdoor exploration will highlight local wildlife with live animal exhibits and some interactive areas as well. We will plan to leave at 8:45am and return for 3:30pm. Please pack lunch, snacks, water, sunscreen and plan to wear your camp shirt!

Wednesday and Thursday we will do small group visits to Berry Good Farm in the Rec Bus. If you want your child to attend and pick some blueberries to bring home, the cost is $10. Please pack cash for this. It is optional.

Friday, we will use blueberries picked by the staff to make blueberry pancakes and our counselor Josh, will talk about how Maple Syrup is made. Campers can enjoy pancakes with fresh NH syrup. A Camp favorite on Friday is our Dodges Store trip (please remember to send between $2-5 if your child wishes to participate) and a visit to the Library. We will also continue our act of kindness Fridays.

Please let us know if your child has any food allergies/sensitivities that we are not already aware of Week 3's camper of the week was Arlo! Congrats to Arlo!

Our all day field trip on Tuesday to Squam Lake Science Center will leave at 8:45am (please be here no later than 8:30) and we will plan to return for 3:30pm**

Week 3 Issue

Hello Campers and Families!

Week 3 was arts and sports week. On Monday, we welcomed Katie Hawkes and Kate Merva as special guests. Katie gave a painting lesson to all campers in the morning and Kate did a movement activity option in the afternoon introducing yoga, barre and Zumba to the campers.

Tuesday was our whale watch! After a foggy first couple hours, we were finally able to spot mother and calf humpback whales swimming together and getting SUPER close to our boat! It was so cool to see their size and flukes as we watched them swim together.

Wednesday and Thursday were traditional camp days and included fly swatter painting, chalk murals, and string painting as well as a Gaga tournament and Campers also got to put together a mural Lego set. Have you noticed the weekly Lego kits we have had at camp so far? We are partnering with a new Goffstown company called the Brick Builders who are renting a new set to us each week based on our weekly theme. Flyers are available next to the sign in sheet if you're interested in learning more!

Kate also did a craft hour with campers Wednesday afternoon and made Pom Pom creatures. If you have any extra socks laying around, please consider bringing them in for a donation for Kate's next craft time :)

On Friday, we welcomed a Karate demo with Determined Martial Arts. Mr. Jones started with teaching knees, kicks and punches, then let them practice on mats held by counselors.

On Friday, we also focused on our second week of kindness. We again asked each of our three groups to think of someone who has been helpful to us in our community and then show them an act of kindness. Each group ended up choosing someone different to thank and celebrate with a card/sign. This week the three groups thanked; Dodge's Store (2 groups) and Kate Merva. We are so grateful for their support of our program

Week 3 Cow Arlo

When deciding on the Camper of the Week our staff looks for a camper that is: Helpful, shows good sportsmanship, is kind and respectful to other campers and staff, respects camp/town property and equipment.

The counselors noticed that Arlo always brings a smile and a bright personality to each activity. He tried a variety of opportunities and is friendly to everyone around him. Congratulations and thank you for adding to our positive camp community!

Woot Woot Arlo!
